Mr. Townsend stated that the report was provided at the last meeting which was the January 17, 2023 Capital Improvement Program report. He stated it goes through all items associated with the background of the development and number of units associated with this development and the improvements that are incorporated in the capital improvements such as roadways, neighborhood, transportation improvements, potable water, reclaim, and sanitary sewer facilities that will be involved, stormwater management, drainage facility, ponds and storm pipes, etc. recreation facility, design and permit contingency, and basically the cost for what those improvements would be. He stated they provide table of the total capital improvement cost and the total for all different segments including the roadways, land, water, sewer, storm, landscape irrigation, wetland mitigation, and who owns and maintains the systems.

Mr. Dugan wanted to confirm since the January meeting there has not been any substantive changes to the report that Board reviewed. Mr. Townsend stated there have been no changes.

Mr. Dugan noted a few questions needing to be established for the record that helps with the validation process. He asked Mr. Townsend based on his professional experience, are the costs submitted in the report reasonable and proper. Mr. Townsend answered that yes, they are. Mr. Dugan asked Mr. Townsend if he was aware of any reason to believe the improvements could not be carried out by the District. Mr. Townsend stated he is not aware of any reason why the improvements could not be carried out.

Mr. Dugan stated he had no other questions and opened it up to the Board for questions. Mr. Baker wanted to confirm on Table 2 that nothing from common area landscaping was put in the HOA or the master, it is all CDD and City of Orlando. Mr. Townsend stated yes, that is his understanding of what they wanted.

B. Presentation of Master Assessment Methodology Report

Mr. LeBrun stated there have been no changes since the Board looked at the methodology report since last meeting. He stated it starts on page 32 in the agenda which is the start of the Maser Assessment Methodology report, and it is the same as the report the saw at last meeting. He stated he would review it for the record for today's public hearing. Table 1 is the description of different product types that is based on the engineer's report with a total of 1,097 units. Table 2 is the probable cost from the engineer's report that was just reviewed. Table 3 is the preliminary bond sizing if you guys were to fund 100% of the improvements, that is the ceiling amount shown in Table 3 for the bond sizing. Table 4 is the allocation of benefits based on improvement cost. Table 5 is the allocation of benefit based on the par amount and Table 6 shows the annual assessment if 100% of the improvements were funded, but they are not required to fund at that level, just shows the ceiling of the max amount on table 6. Table 7 is the preliminary assessment. Mr. LeBrun asked for any questions or comments from Supervisors or District Counsel.

Mr. Dugan stated he had more questions to establish for the record to confirm in the meeting minutes that these are appropriately levied assessments. Mr. Dugan asked Mr. LeBrun if the District land subject to these assessments receive a special benefit from the improvement. Mr. LeBrun answered yes. Mr. Dugan asked are the special assessments reasonably and fairly allocated to the land that is subject to the assessment. Mr. LeBrun answered yes. Mr. Dugan asked if it was reasonable, proper, and just to assess the cost of the improvements against the lands in the District in accordance with the methodology. Mr. LeBrun answered yes. Mr. Dugan asked if the assessed land would receive special benefits equal to or an extent of the special assessments as levied under the methodology. Mr. LeBrun answered yes. Mr. Dugan asked if it was in the best interest of the District that the special assessments be paid and collected in accordance with the Methodology and Assessment Resolution. Mr. LeBrun answered yes.

Mr. Dugan stated if there were any questions about the process or the report to let them know.

C. Consideration of Resolution 2023-12 Levying Special Assessments

students around the world for "March for Our Lives," one of the largest protests in American history. Millions marched in Washington, D.C., and around the world that day to demand action to end the gun-violence epidemic. There were over 800 marches around the world and youth voter registrations. Those registrations led to action.

"I am really proud that we have had such a massive youth voter turnout," David Hogg, a co-founder of March for Our Lives, told the Sun Sentinel. "We are clearly voting disproportionately for candidates that support gun safety. It wasn't just in 2018 or 2020. It was also in 2022. We have done it when Republicans were in power and when Democrats were in power. Every election we are voting."

In the most recent election, Maxwell Frost, the 25-year-old former March for Our Lives national director, won a seat in Congress from Florida's 10th Congressional District.

Hogg said it takes time to create the amount of change needed, adding "the gun-control movement has gotten substantially stronger since we entered it."

Virginia passed universal background checks and its own red-flag law.

New Jersey passed increasingly progressive gun-control laws in 2018, 2019 and 2022.

Last year, Colorado banned firearms at polling sites.

And Congress last year passed the Bipartisan Safer Communities Act, the first federal gun-control legislation in 30 years, which provides funding for community-based violence prevention initiatives and funds background checks and mental health courts.

"It wasn't passive, but it was a hell of a lot more progress than has been made in my entire lifetime," Hogg said. "Objectively, we still have a long way to go."

Gun-control laws weren't the only changes. Florida and New Jersey passed versions of Alyssa's Law, named for Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School shooting victim Alyssa Ahldeff. It requires public elementary and secondary schools to be equipped with "silent panic alarms that are directly linked to law enforcement," Alyssa Ahldeff's mother, Lori, was elected to the Broward County School Board in 2018.

Four other states are considering similar laws, and a federal version is also being considered in Congress.

Tony Montalto, who lost his daughter, Gina, in the shooting, said, "Each time we pass a law, change a policy that makes students and parents safer in school, it extends the legacy of the student taken from us."

The changes that were implemented remain part of the legal legacy of the Parkland mass shooting. But gun rights remain a hot political issue, high-powered weapons like the AR-15 style rifle remain widely available, and mass shootings at churches, schools and shopping centers remain in the headlines.

"Ban assault weapons once and for all," President Biden said during his State of the Union speech on Tuesday. "We did it before. I led the fight to ban them in 1994. In the 10 years the ban was law, mass shootings went down. After Republicans let it expire, mass shootings leapt back up. Let's finish the job and ban assault weapons again."

The families of the victims of Stoneman Douglas said not a political monolith. Some agree with the president. Others embrace gun ownership and dismiss bans as political theater. Florida's changes were perfectly suited for a "purple state," balancing the call for action against the Constitutional right to keep and bear arms.

Ryan Petty, a Parkland parent who lost his daughter Alaina in the shooting, is a political conservative who has argued for years in favor of the state's red-flag law, which allows a law enforcement agency to seek and obtain an order to remove guns from people who are considered at risk of committing a crime.

Florida has issued nearly 10,000 risk-protection orders since the red-flag law was passed.

Family members typically ask local law enforcement agencies to take weapons from someone who is expressing a desire to harm themselves or someone else. The law enforcement agency must get a judge to sign off on the order before seizing any weapons. Judges have so far approved about 94% of the petitions, according to state figures.

But the orders are temporary. The targets usually get their weapons back after the emergency that prompted the order has passed.

In an interview last year, Petty said the law is a reasonable compromise between individual rights and public safety. "With regard to the due-process issues, I get it. It feels like guilty until proven innocent," he said. "But it seems to me that we are balancing the rights of law-abiding gun owners against the rights of individuals who have chosen and demonstrated that they are a threat to themselves or others. That's the distinction I make, and that's why I've supported and support red-flag laws like we have in Florida."

Rot Lauderdale defense attorney Jim Lewis, who represented the target of Broward County's first seizure under the red-flag law, agreed. "It should be limited to those people who are mentally deranged or involved in active disputes where gun violence might be imminent," he said. "I think it's appropriate in certain circumstances for the government to step in."

The law enjoys widespread public support, Montalto said. "The red-flag laws, the change from 18 to 21. No one was voted out of office for passing that ... it had bi-partisan support," he said. "There hasn't been a huge backlash against it."

But other Parkland parents said they are concerned that Florida is on the verge of undoing its progress on gun safety by pushing a proposal that would allow Floridians to carry concealed firearms without licenses.

"The laws that were passed in 2018 probably saved lives," said Fred Guttenberg, whose daughter, Jenna, was killed at the St. Johns River. "But the supporters of this bill can't point to how it will make anyone safer. Because it won't."

This summer, in the wake of mass shootings in Uvalde and Buffalo, March for Our Lives held another 450 marches in cities across the country.

"As part of a result of those, we helped pass several dozen gun laws on the state level and the first one in 30 years on the national level. It's progress," Hogg said. In addition, he said, gun shooting survivors are more united. "To see the survivors come together and work together just gives me hope."

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER ADOPTION OF ASSESSMENT ROLL PURSUANT TO SECTION 197.3632(4)(b), FLORIDA STATUTES, BY THE RIVERWALK COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT DISTRICT

NOTICE OF REGULAR MEETING OF THE RIVERWALK COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT DISTRICT

The Board of Supervisors ("Board") of the Riverwalk Community Development District will hold a public hearing at 3:30 p.m. on March 16, 2023, at 6200 Lee Vista Boulevard, Orlando, Florida 32822, to consider the adoption of an assessment roll, the imposition of special assessments to access proposed bonds on benefited lands within the Riverwalk Community Development District ("District"), and to prepare for the levy, collection and enforcement of the special assessments. The amounts and areas to be assessed are depicted below and in the District's Engineer's Report for Capital Improvement Plan dated January 17, 2023 ("Improvement Plan"). The public hearing is being held pursuant to Chapters 170, 197 and 197A, Florida Statutes. A description of the property to be assessed and the amount to be assessed on each piece or parcel of property may be ascertained at the office of the District Manager located at 219 East Livingston Street, Orlando, Florida 32801.

The District is a unit of special-purpose local government responsible for providing infrastructure improvements for lands within the District. The infrastructure improvements ("improvements") are currently expected to include, but are not limited to, roadway improvements, land acquisition, public water systems, sanitary sewer system, reclaimed water system, duct bank underpinning, drainage works, landscaping and irrigation, wetland mitigation, and other improvements, all as more specifically described in the Improvement Plan, on the land available during normal business hours at the address provided above.

The District wishes to impose assessments on benefited lands within the District in the manner set forth in the District's Assessor Assessment Methodology, dated January 18, 2023 ("Assessment Report"), which is on file and available during normal business hours at the address provided above. The Assessment Report identifies each parcel identification number within the District and assessments per parcel for each land use category that will be assessed. The method of allocating assessments for the improvements to be funded by the District will initially be determined on an equal assessment per acre basis. As time permits are placed or otherwise subdivided into assessable units, the method of allocating assessments is based on the Equivalent Residential Unit ("ERU") Factor. The ERU Factor is explained in more detail in the Assessment Report. Also, as described in more detail in the Assessment Report, the District's assessments will be levied against all lands within the District. Please consult the Assessment Report for more details.

The annual principal assessment levied against each parcel will be based on repayment over thirty (30) years of the total debt allocated to each parcel. The District expects to collect sufficient revenues to retire no more than $148,500,000 in debt to be assessed by the District, exclusive of fees and costs of collection or enforcement, discounts for early payment and interest. The proposed schedule of assessments is as follows:

Product Type	ERU (per unit)	Total Per Debt (per unit)	Annual Assessment (per unit)
Attached Townhome 20'	0.40	$71,845	$5,300

*Includes all collection fees and early payment discounts when collected on the County Tax Roll.

The assessments may be prepaid in whole at any time, or in more installments in part, or may be paid in not more than thirty (30) annual installments subsequent to the issuance of debt to finance the improvements. These annual assessments may be collected on the Orange County tax roll by the Tax Collector. Alternatively, the District may choose to directly collect and enforce these assessments. All affected property owners have the right to appeal the public hearing and the right to file written objections with the District within twenty (20) days of the publication of this notice.

Also at 3:30 p.m. on March 16, 2023, at 6200 Lee Vista Boulevard, Orlando, Florida 32822, the Board will hold a regular public meeting to consider any other business that may lawfully be considered by the District. The Board is currently developing district. The Board meeting and/or the public hearings may be continued in progress to a date and time certain announced at the meeting and/or hearings.

If anyone chooses to appeal any decision of the Board with respect to any matter considered at the meeting or hearing, such person will need a record of the proceedings and should accordingly arrange that a verbatim record of the proceedings be made. The verbatim record of the proceedings shall be made available to the public at a cost to be set by the District. Any person requesting special accommodations at the meeting or hearing because of a disability or physical limitation should contact the District Office at (407) 841-5224 at least 48 hours prior to the meeting. ### IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR DRINKING WATER

Monitoring Requirement for Southern Regional Water System Water System ID 3484119

Orange County Utilities is required to monitor the drinking water for specific contaminants on a regular basis. The results of this monitoring serve as an indication as to whether or not the water meets drinking water standards. The monitoring schedule requires bromate to be sampled once a month. During October 2022, the bromate sample collected was invalid due to a laboratory error. The contracted laboratory allowed the sample to exceed the allowable hold time. We collected a replacement sample on November 21, 2022.

Your drinking water has NEVER exceeded the regulated maximum contaminant level (MCL) for bromate, either before or after the missed monitoring requirement.

Although the MCL has never been exceeded, we want you to be aware that some people who drink water containing bromate in excess of the MCL over many years may have an increased risk of getting cancer.

What should I do?

There is nothing you need to do at this time. You do not need to boil your water or use an alternative water supply.

Please share this information with others who drink this water, especially those who may not have received this notice directly (for example, people in apartments, nursing homes, schools, and businesses).

If you need additional information, please contact the Utilities Laboratory at 407-254-9550, OCU.Lab@ocnet.net, or 8124 Curry Ford Road, Orlando, FL 32825.

RICHARD BELZER 1944-2023

Stand-up comic best known as an unforgettable TV cop

By Jake Coyle Associated Press

Richard Belzer, the long-time stand-up comic who became one of TV's most indelible detectives as John Munch in "Homicide: Life on the Street" and "Law & Order: SVU," has died. He was 78.

Belzer died Sunday at his home in Beaulieu-sur-Mer, France, his longtime friend Bill Scheft said. Scheft, a writer who had been working on a documentary about Belzer, said there was no known cause of death, but that Belzer had been dealing with circulatory and respiratory issues.

The actor Henry Winkler, Belzer's cousin, tweeted, "Rest in peace Richard."

For more than two decades and across 10 series — even including appearances on "30 Rock" and "Arrested Development" — Belzer played the wise-cracking, acerbic homicide detective prone to conspiracy theories. Belzer first played Munch on a 1993 episode of "Homicide" and last played him in 2016 on "Law & Order: SVU."

After hearing Belzer on "The Howard Stern Show," executive producer Barry Levinson brought him in to read for the part. "I would never be a detective if I were, that's how I'd be," Belzer once said. "They write to all my paranoia and anti-establishment lassitude and conspiracy theories."

Munch would become one of television's longest-running characters — a sunglasses-wearing presence on the small screen for more than two decades. He also helped write several books on conspiracy theories.

"He made me laugh a billion times," his longtime friend and fellow stand-up Richard Lewis said Sunday

Richard Belzer as Detective John Munch on "Homicide: Life on the Street." Belzer, who was also known as a stand-up comic, died Sunday in France at 78. CHRIS HASTON/NBC 1985 on Twitter. Born in Bridgeport, Connecticut, Belzer was drawn to comedy, he said, during an abusive childhood. After being expelled from a Massachusetts college, Belzer embarked on a life of stand-up in New York in 1972.

At Catch a Rising Star, Belzer became a regular performer and emcee. He made his movie debut in Ken Shapiro's 1974 film "The Groove Tube," a satire co-starring Chevy Chase.

Before "Saturday Night Live" changed the comedy scene in New York, Belzer performed with John Belushi, Glode Radner, Bill Murray and others on the National Lampoon Radio Hour. In 1975, he became the warmup comic for the newly launched "SNL." Belzer became one of the era's top stand-ups. He was known especially for his biting, cynical attitude and his witty, sometimes combative banter with the audience.

Belzer often played a stand-up comic in film, including in 1980's "Fame" and 1983's "Scarface." But Munch would change Belzer's career. As "Homicide" co-creator Tom Fontana said, "Munch was the spice in these dishes," Belzer told the AV Club. "Munch was based on a real guy in Baltimore who was a star detective, in a way. He would come onto grisly murder scenes, start doing one-liners, because someone had to break the tension."

When "Homicide" wrapped in 1999, Munch called Dick Wolf to see if the character could join another NBC series, "Law & Order," where Munch appeared in a few previous episodes. Wolf already had his leads, but he wanted Belzer to star in a spinoff. That fall, "Law & Order: SVU" premiered, with Belzer starting alongside Mariska Hargitay and Christopher Meloni in a storyline written as though Munch had transferred to New York.

Belzer is survived by his third wife, actor Harlee McBride.

NKorea fires 2 missiles after ICBM launch, SKorea says

Associated Press

SEOUL, South Korea — North Korea has fired a pair of short-range ballistic missiles off its east coast on Monday, South Korea's military said, two days after the North resumed testing activities with an intercontinental ballistic missile launch.

South Korea detected the two launches from a western coastal town, north of Pyongyang, the North Korean capital, on Monday morning, South Korea's Joint Chiefs of Staff said in a statement.

It said South Korea has boosted its surveillance posture and maintains a readiness in close coordination with the United States. Japan's coast guard also issued warnings over what it called possible ballistic missile launches by North Korea.

The coast guard, quoting the Defense Ministry information, said the first missile was believed to have landed in the water. Kyodo News said it landed outside the Japanese Exclusive Economic Zone.

Also Monday morning, Kim Yo Jong, the powerful sister of North Korean leader Kim Jong Un, issued a statement warning of weapons demonstrations over what she called U.S. deployments of strategic military assets to the Korean Peninsula. She called the United States "the worst maniacs."

"The frequency of using the Pacific as our firing range depends upon the U.S. forces' action character," Kim Yo Jong said in a statement carried by state media. "We are well aware of the movement of U.S. forces' strategic strike means recently getting brisk around the Korean Peninsula."

She didn't elaborate but could refer to the U.S. fiver of B-1B long-range, supersonic bombers on Sunday for separate training with South Korea and Japan.

A.U.S. Air Force B-1B bomber, top, flies in formation with F-16 fighter jets Sunday over the South Korean Peninsula during a joint air drill. SOUTH KOREAN DEFENSE MINISTRY

The B-1B deployment came as a response to North Korea's launch of the Hwasong-15 ICBM off its east coast Saturday in the country's first missile test since Jan. 1.

North Korea's state media said Sunday the ICBM test was meant to further bolster its "fatal" nuclear attack capacity and verify the weapon's reliability and the combat readiness of the country's nuclear force.

The United States responded by flying long-range supersonic bombers in a show of force later Sunday for separate joint exercises with South Korea and Japanese warplanes.

Saturday's ICBM test signals that Kim Jong Un is using his rivals' drills as a chance to expand his country's nuclear arsenal to get the upper hand in future dealings with the United States.

North Korea's official Korean Central News Agency said Saturday's launch of the Hwasong-15 ICBM was organized "suddenly" without prior notice at Kim's direct order. KCNA said the launch was designed to verify the weapon's reliability and the combat readiness of the country's nuclear force.

It said the missile was fired at a high angle and reached a maximum altitude of about 3,585 miles, flying a distance of about 615 miles for 67 minutes before accurately hitting a preset area in the waters between the Korean Peninsula and Japan.

The steep-angle launch was apparently to avoid neighboring countries. The flight details reported by North Korea, which roughly matched the launch information previously ascertained by its neighbors, show the weapon is theoretically capable of reaching the mainland U.S. if fired at a standard trajectory.

The Hwasong-15 launch demonstrated the North's "powerful physical nuclear deterrence" and its efforts to "firm its capacity of fatal nuclear counterattack on the hostile forces" into an extremely strong one that cannot be countered, KCNA said.

North Korea has steadfastly slammed regular South Korea-U.S. military drills as an invasion rehearsal that the allies say their exercises are defensive in nature.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER IMPOSITION OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS PURSUANT TO SECTION 170.07, FLORIDA STATUTES, BY THE RIVERWALK COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT DISTRICT

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO CONSIDER ADOPTION OF ASSESSMENT ROLL PURSUANT TO SECTION 197.3632(4)(b), FLORIDA STATUTES, BY THE RIVERWALK COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT DISTRICT

NOTICE OF REGULAR MEETING OF THE RIVERWALK COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT DISTRICT

The Board of Supervisors ("Board") of the Riverwalk Community Development District will hold a public hearing at 2:30 p.m. on March 15, 2023, at 6200 Leo Vinta Boulevard, Orlando, Florida 32822, to consider the adoption of an assessment roll, the imposition of special assessments to secure proposed bonds on benefited lands within the Riverwalk Community Development District ("District"), and to provide for the levy, collection and enforcement of the special assessments. The streets and areas to be improved are depicted below and in the District's "Engineers Report for Capital Improvement Plan" dated January 17, 2023 (the "Improvement Plan"). The public hearing is being conducted pursuant to Chapter 170, 190 and 197, Florida Statutes. A description of the property to be assessed and the amount to be assessed on each parcel or parcel of property may be ascertained at the office of the District Manager located at 219 East Livingston Street, Orlando, Florida 32801.

The District is a unit of special-purpose local government responsible for providing infrastructure improvements for lands within the District. The infrastructure improvements ("improvements") are currently expected to include, but not be limited to, roadway improvements, and acquisition and installation of water systems, stormwater systems, reclaimed water systems, dual tank undergrounding, drainage works, landscaping and irrigation, wetland mitigation, and other improvements, all as more specifically described in the Improvement Plan, on file and available during normal business hours at the address provided above.

The District intends to impose assessments on benefited lands within the District in the manner set forth in the District's Assessment Methodology, dated January 18, 2023 ("Assessment Report"), which is on file and available during normal business hours at the address provided above. The Assessment Report identifies each tax parcel identification number within the District and assessments per parcel for each land use category that is currently expected to be assessed. The method of allocating assessments for the improvements to be funded by the District will initially be determined on an equal assessment per acre basis. At the time parcels are platified or otherwise subdivided, the assessable units, the method of allocating assessments is based on the Equivalent Residential Unit ("ERU"). The ERU factor is explained in more detail in the Assessment Report. The Assessment Report allocates the District's total anticipated debt over certain developable property included in the development plan for lands within the District. The methodology is explained in more detail in the Assessment Report. Also, as described in more detail in the Assessment Report, the District's assessments will be levied against all lands within the District. Please consult the Assessment Report for more details.

The annual principal assessment (levied against each parcel) will be based on repayment over thirty (30) years of the total debt allocated to this parcel. The District expects to collect sufficient revenues to repay no more than $148,500,000 in debt to be assessed by the District, exclusive of fees and costs of collection of enforcement, discounts for early payment and interest. The proposed schedule of assessments is as follows:
